

Your pharmacies: you choose

No matter which doctor writes your prescription, you have choices about where it is filled. You can take it to one of the Kaiser Permanente pharmacies in our many conveniently located medical centers throughout the area, or you may choose a pharmacy in the national MedImpact network. If your preferred pharmacy is not in the network, that's okay. Go where you like.

It's your money: you decide where to spend it

Copayments, coinsurance, and deductibles vary according to where you receive care and services. So, you control your out-of-pocket costs by the choices you make.

Experience the freedom of choice.
